“It’s stopped raining, it’s stopped hailing, guys are swimming, guys are sailing” (with apologies to Alan Sherman)

So it’s time for us to polish up the classic, put the hood down and get motoring.

Plenty to do as shown below, while alongside, are the two overall winners from our skittles evening.

David (no not that one) & Carol.

So see you out and about
Geoff.

Skittles at the Plough

A thoroughly enjoyable evening, as always, at The Plough in Fairford organised by Mike and Jan Cox.

Well done and “Thank you” both.

Winners of the pairs competition, Dave and Doreen, are showing their excitement and delight at their prize which they then very generously offered around.

First winners of the evening were Dave Chambers for the Men’s prize - caught here, looking like a startled rabbit, with his motoring goodies -

- and Denise Handley for the Ladies’. Wondering just what Mike is putting into her outstretched hand.

There were some amazing techniques on display and the number of ways of missing the skittles was only surpassed by a “trick shot,” or should that be a “Trish shot” where the ball hit the left hand side wall, travelled diagonally through the massed ranks of skittles before hitting the right hand wall and dropping into the well, leaving all the skittles still standing proud.

How can you follow that next year Trish ?

A warm welcome to New Members :-

Mike and Sue Willis from Poulton

Brian and Kathleen Dickenson from Minety

Fred and Robyn Nash from Witney

Oh and by the way, if you did not understand my references on page 1 because you are too young or too old and have forgotten I suggest you put “ Camp Granada by Allan Sherman (with lyrics)” into your search engine and listen to the letter home from summer camp.
